"After working in the Travel Industry in Vietnam for many years, my family and I came to live in New Zealand. I loved being at the College and they helped me get my job as a Reservations Consultant, so I am very pleased to have been a student at ITC." SEN HOANG

COURSE OVERVIEW

+ This 16 week (4 month) Diploma course provides students with the most well recognised international qualification within the Travel and Airline Industry: the IATA/UFTAA Diploma, combined with a cluster of NZQA units from the National Certificates in Travel at Levels 3 and 4. This course serves as an entry level qualification for the Diploma in Tourism & Travel Management course at Level 5 (page 10). Students studying this course are given preferential entry to the Level 5 programme.
+ This is a very valuable course for those students who want to work in travel agencies or airlines in New Zealand or overseas as the qualification is recognised in more than 100 countries.
+ The inclusion of both Galileo & Sabre provides students with excellent practical skill-building in computerised reservations systems.
