Off-site Key Points

Initial booking and student numbers to attend the short course are to be sent at least 4 weeks prior to the course date to schools@itc.co.nz

If we have not receive reconfirmation three weeks before the start of the course, your booking will be cancelled by us and offered to someone on the waiting list.

If a reconfirmed booking is cancelled within 3 weeks of the start date of the course, full payment will still be required.

- If numbers are below the required minimum of 12 students 2 weeks prior to the course start date it will be rescheduled to a later date.
- Results and a certificate will be sent to the school for each student.
A representative present with your students is not compulsory; however we do understand if this is a necessity.
- Students will be assessed by a representative of the International Travel College. Please note that the reporting of these results to NZQA is the responsibility of the school.
- If your student has any specific learning needs or requirements please advise us prior to the course start date.

If a short course is cancelled due to any unforeseen circumstances e.g. weather, and the ITC tutor has already travelled to your region, or travel costs are non refundable, the costs incurred will be met equally by ITC and the schools attending the course.
