

SARNDRA STEPHENS

EMPLOYMENT CONSULTANT

Hi, I'm Sarndra, and I've spent many years working in the tourism industry, a journey that started as a tour guide with Topdeck Travel. I spent around eight months of each year travelling through Europe, Russia, Scandinavia, Eastern Europe, as well as Greece and Turkey, meeting incredible people along the way. I was also lucky enough to work as a tour guide for Contiki here in New Zealand, showing visitors just how amazing our country is.

I then moved into retail and corporate travel, working for Flight Centre in Newmarket before becoming a Million Dollar Consultant with Corporate Traveller. My career later took me to Australia for six years, where I worked with Qantas at check-in, as a travel agent, and as a tutor in travel colleges.

I've been with ITC for over 20 years, working across roles including tutoring, Study From Home, and course advising. Today, as an Employment Consultant, she supports students from applications through to interviews, helping them feel confident and prepared to enter the industry.

One of the most rewarding parts of my role is seeing students secure their dream jobs, not just when they graduate, but even years later as they continue to grow their careers. I'm always here to support our graduates, whether it's their first role or their next step.

I love being part of the ITC team, where we're all focused on helping students begin their own exciting journeys in travel and tourism.
